

Georgia Work Ready Service Delivery

Georgia's system of technical colleges support Work Ready via their economic development offices. The technical colleges administer assessments, provide gap training and offer job profiling services.

